Brief Abstract of Letter.

Regrets that for reasons given the allowance given to the Senior Inspector of the Distillery may be given a horse allowance of Rs 20/- instead of Rs 15/-.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

(1) ~~Unreadable~~ Five reasons are given by the Excise Commr for increasing the permanent travelling allowance of the Senior Inspector at the Central Distillery and they are as follows:-

Notes—First sheet

GPB—15,000—24-4-09.

Serial No.

1) The Inspectors are sent to the Distillery by turns for undergoing practical training, and that owing to the lower scale attached to the post a transfer thereto is considered a handship.

2) As these Inspectors are not ~~kept~~ Kept long they cannot dispose of their conveyances for the short period.

3) ~~(2)~~ These Inspectors have to do responsible work at the distillery ~~the~~ which is at some distance from the City. ~~to the~~

4) As a mark of difference between the ~~two~~ officers employed ~~also~~ this recommendation is made.

5) The proposal involves no extra cost ~~t~~ is in conformity with the provision made in the budget.

(2) It was ordered in the G.O. of the 3rd march 1911 that the allowance admissible to the Inspector of the grade lower than the 1st Inspector should be Rs 15/- The recommendation to increase the allowance of the 2nd Inspector to Rs 20/- was not sanctioned (vide G.O. of the 2nd Oct 1907.) The argument of the financial secretary given on page 3 of the notes meets the first three reasons of the Excise Commr.

(3) As regards the 4th it may be stated that it is only an arbitrary reason. The two Inspectors who are attached to the distillery at present get Rs 80 & Rs 70.

Offr. Before [illegible] w/ a copy of this [illegible] of 1903 – it is necessary for a proper understanding of the case.

The fifth is no argument at all as the excess provision in the budget made by mistake is no justification for sanctioning an increase.

As long as the Head Inspector was attached to the Distillery, a question like this could not arise. Even after the Head Inspector ceased to be attached to the Distillery the higher allce of Rs 25 was drawn by the Senior Inspector at the Distillery. It has been ruled that the higher allowance goes with the pay of the Head Inspector. Some distinction should be made between the two Inspectors at the Distillery. The allowance of the Senior may be fixed at Rs 20 & that of the Junior at Rs 15. The

SIR,

Adverting to the last para of Government Order No. Fl. 4632-3/S.R.255-09, dated 3rd March 1911, stating that an Inspector of a grade lower than that of Head Inspector, when working in the Distillery, is only entitled to an allowance of R$.15/-, I have the honor to state that since the appointment of Mr. J. E. Rozario as District Excise Officer, the Inspectors who succeeded him in the Distillery as Senior Inspectors continued to draw an allowance of R$.25/- although they were not actually holding the appointment of Head Inspector, and this arrangement ceased after the appointment of N. Cheluvaiyengar, as per Government Order No. Fl.1544/S.R.255-09-2, dated 23rd September 1910. The Head Inspector on R$.150/- was always the Senior Officer in the Distillery until the transfer of Mr. Roza-rio as District Excise Officer. Now the Head Inspector is placed in charge of the most important and heaviest Range of Bowringpet and now the several Range Inspectors, who are otherwise capable, are placed in charge of the Distillery by turns, so that each may under-go a practical training. Owing to the lower scale of allowance attached to the post, a transfer thereto is considered as a hard-ship.

2. As these Inspectors will not be kept long in the Dis-tillery, they cannot conveniently dispose of their conveyances in the expectation of a transfer to a Range. In view of the responsi-

responsible work as a Distillery Officer and taking into considera-tion the distance from the City to the Distillery I consider that the benefit of the usual horse allowance should be at least extended to the Senior Inspector there. As a mark of difference between the Senior and Junior Inspectors, the latter will continue to draw only Rs.15/-.

3. In these circumstances, I request that Government will be pleased to sanction the enhancement of the allowance from Rs.15/- to Rs. 20/- a month with effect from the date of the present Inspector's transfer to the Distillery.

4. In this connection, I may add that this proposal involves no extra cost and is also in confirmity with the provision made in the Budget as shown in the margin, the other Junior Inspector draw-
